	National Centres should prioritise aims according to an analysis of their national needs. The aims of the Association (when applied to National Centres) include: To work for the rights of children and young people to artistic experiences especially designed and created for them in that country.
	To work for the recognition and

	To improve the common knowledge of theatre for children and young people, thus drawing the attention of international and national authorities to the importance of taking children and young people and the artistic work created for them seriously.
	To give people working with theatre for children and young people in that country the opportunity to learn about the work of colleagues from other countries and cultures, thus enabling them to enrich theatre for children and young people in their own country.
	To form and sustain a National Centre which functions in accordance with the mission, constitution and policies of the Association. This centre shall unite all theatres, organizations, and persons interested in theatre for children and National Centre should be elected democratically.

	Ideally National Centres should be formally constituted, according to the laws governing such associations in the given country.
	Once the board of the National Centre has been established and membership of the association has reached a point considered sufficiently representative of the field to constitute a National Centre (and the minimum requirements of the ASSITEJ constitution have been met), an application form for membership of ASSITEJ should be completed.

	This application form is submitted to the Executive Committee and the request is discussed at one of the physical meetings of the EC, or via email.
	If the request is granted, then the National Centre will be notified by the Secretary General, and the Treasurer will send an invoice requesting payment of membership fees for the first year.
	Once these fees have been received into the ASSITEJ account, the membership is considered active.
	If the request is rejected, reasons for rejection will be given by the Secretary General, and the group will be given the opportunity to reapply once months, in which a National Centre is asked to reorganise themselves to meet their constitutional obligations or to deal with other issues identified as problematic by the Executive Committee. Expulsion implies that the member will no longer be considered part of the association. Expulsion is usually a last resort after a period of communication with the centre. Reasons for expulsion include but are not limited to: nonpayment of fees for three or more years; noncommunication and non-responsiveness; exclusivity, lack of representation or gate-keeping activity; refusal to adhere to the constitution of ASSITEJ; bringing ASSITEJ into disrepute. Once expulsion has occurred, the Executive Committee should wherever possible work towards finding theatre companies, organisations and persons in that country who might form a new centre.

Any rejected, suspended, or expelled member may appeal to the next General Assembly.

Notice of the appeal must be given in writing to the Secretary-General so as to be included in the Agenda for the General Assembly. The General Assembly will hear both the appeal and the reasons of the Executive Committee for the decision. They may overturn the decision of the Executive Committee by a majority vote.
